Overview

API Controller Documentation · https://verify550.com/documentation/overview/

The `ApiController` manages core API operations including email verification, file processing, and API key authentication.

All endpoints require an API key unless otherwise specified.